Notice

Bank Account Debit (Automated Clearing House) Payments Will Be Accepted Via the Internet

July 28, 2011

Pursuant to Local Rule 5081-1, all documents requiring a filing fee that are filed electronically via CM/ECF must be paid electronically by the attorney filer. Beginning on August 1, 2011, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Alabama (ALNB) will allow filers the option to pay filing fees over the Internet by bank account debit (Automated Clearing House) in addition to credit card payments. This service is provided to the Court by the U.S. Treasury to allow filers to pay filing fees interactively as part of the electronic filing process. Attorneys can choose to pay some or all transactions requiring fees in a given transaction.

Reminder: unless an Application to Pay Filing Fees in Installments has been filed, filing fees are due to be paid to the Court at the time of filing.

When a new bankruptcy case, adversary proceeding, or other pleading requiring filing fees is filed with the Court, filers will be presented with the option to pay the fees via the Internet with a bank account debit or a credit card. After confirming the selected fees to pay, the filer will be asked for payment information to pay the total of selected fees, either by credit card or by bank account debit (ACH). The Pay.gov website will present the filer with two options for making an electronic payment. Option one allows the filer to pay the filing fee via bank account debit (ACH). Option two allows the filer to pay the filing fee via credit card.

All CM/ECF users making fee payments by Internet bank account debit or credit card through Pay.gov must use Internet Explorer 7 or 8 or FireFox 3.5 as their browser. These are the only browsers supported by the most recent version of the U.S. Treasury's Pay.gov system.

Please review our instructions for Payment of Filing Fees with a Bank Account Debit or Credit Card Via the Internet for additional information. If you have any questions regarding this announcement, please contact us at ecftrain@alnb.uscourts.gov.
